Sophia. How much my heart feels for them! How agonizing must it be, to be separated from one s near relations! parents perhaps divided from their children for ever; husbands from their wives; brothers and, sifters obliged to bid each other a sinal farewell!--But why do the kings of the African states suffer theitf subjects to be fo cruelly treated?--Mother. Many causes have operated to induce thfe African princes to become assistants in this insamous trassic; and instead of being the desenders of their harmless people, they have frequently hstrayed them to their most cruel enemies. The Europeans have corrupted these ignorant rulers, by presents of rum, and other spirituous liquors, of which they are immoderately fond. They have fomented jealousies, bud excited wars amongst them, merely for the; fake of obtaining the prifoners of War for flaves.--Frequently they use no ceremony, but go on shore in...
