Excerpt: . . . 11 But it is largely the difficulty in setting a high scientific bar in a very difficult area. Most of the studies just really arent conclu-sive enough to feel confident that I could say to you, Yes, this is a great idea and you will save a lot of money. Senator L. Mm hmm. Well, I am not necessarily saying INCOLN that we have got to save all the money in that category, but if we can do something that actually does help us in terms of better use of our resources and providing better care, it seems to me it is a no brainer that it is something we should certainly be looking at. So you are saying that there is no conclusive studies that show that not only assessments but also the new medical physical in the Medicare program, are cost effective. Is that what you are saying OLTZ AKIN Mr. H-E. Yes. Senator L. You dont feel like those produce some cost INCOLN benefit OLTZ AKIN Mr. H-E. There are two levels to it, and I will give you a longer answer than you deserve for that reason. The first is just at the level of the economics. Does it save money That is the kind of question where the research is inconclu-sive at this point because it is difficult to actually do the experi-ment you would like, which is give some people the checkup, exactly identical people dont...
