The death of her mother in 1953, just two years after losing her only brother, leaves twelve year old Brenda Kay determined to hang onto her daddy. That turns out to be a bigger job than she thought. Now, she may lose him to a woman, who has her sights set on Brenda s daddy and wants him for her own. After moving nine times in the past six years, all Brenda wants is a home with the only family she has left, her daddy. But, Life is always changing, Daddy says, and Brenda begins to think he goes out of his way to make that happen when he leaves her with relatives, right after her mama s funeral, and rushes back to Houston. Angry, thinking the whole plan for her being there was setup behind her back, Brenda decides to make sure these people know how unhappy she is to be stuck there. To her aunt s dismay, cousin Melanie has an amazing talent for firing up Brenda s already smoldering temper. For comfort, Brenda clings to the only part of...
